

Please make cellular phone number portability a reality! The cell phone companies will just delay it forever if you do not act now and let it happen this November. Other countries already have portability- why not the United States? I hope portability will force the cellular companies to provide better customer service.